

RESUME

Ann Imrie-Howlett

1693 Wedmore Way, Mississauga, Ontario, Canada L5J 2J7
905-823-7215 or 416-434-8726

ahowlett@sympatico.ca

www.studentsfirstcoaching.com

Objective

I choose to assist young people from middle school to universities who have learning challenges including AD/HD. All too frequently, I see these beautiful young people become discouraged and lose hope because of the expectations that systems place upon them. A human life is a precious thing and I want to help my clients to realize their true potential.

"Educational difficulties exist in order to be overcome. Overcoming difficulties leads to courage, self-respect, and knowing yourself."

Alfred Adler

Education and Professional Qualifications

Master of Education,	University of Toronto	1986
Bachelor's of Education, Honours, Psychology	York University	1982
Principal's Qualifications	Ministry of Education, Ontario	1989
Specialist in Special Education	Ministry of Education, Ontario	1975
School Librarianship	Ministry of Education, Ontario	1990
JST Coaching	Coaching Kids and Teens with AD/HD	2006
Adler School of Professional Coaching	Foundations of Professional Coaching	2007
Adler School of Professional Coaching	the Coaching Conversation	2008

Work Experiences

Students First Educational Coaching and Tutoring

I have establish an independent business that has been meeting the educational needs of learning disabled and AD/HD students and their families since 2002

Extensive and Varied Career as Public School Teacher

Sample of Positions Held:

- Special Education Resource Consultant
- Special Education Teacher
- Teacher Librarian

Achievements

- Winner of Award of Distinction, Peel Board of Education
- Award of Honour, Peel Local, E.F.T.O.
- Re-established Peel Teacher Librarians' Association
- Founded Arts in the School Program at Hickory Wood Public School
- Published the Regional Teaching Assistant Handbook (1992) ISBN 1-55038-69-9
- Planned and instructed at the Peel Summer Institute in Active Learning
- Chair and leader of numerous School committees

Community Service (over recent years)

- Regular volunteer for Canadian Cancer Society
- Volunteer member of neighbourhood Community Association
- Executive Member of Head Injury Association
- Voluntarily taught emotional literacy course, "PEERS" at local Baptist Church
- Beaver Leader 1st Clarkson Scouts
- Sunday School Teacher

References and Testimonials available upon request